WELTE & MCLEAN,

Song of the Rapid Fires.

You may take the thirteen inchers. And the eights and six and fours; You may take the heavy battery. And the rain of shells it pours; You may take the grim projectile And the mighty solid shot, But we, the rapid fires, Are the guns that make things hot,

Oh, its swift the turrets swing us, And with steady, ready ken We reach the decks and sweep them With their living walls of men! It's ping, and sping and splutter, And it's beautiful to be The tenors in the chorus

Swing your broadsides into action, Let the forward turrets play. Hark the thunder of the cannon As they dance in death's chase Sweep the courses with the squadron, Let them give and take again, Send the foe the thunder-challenge-But it's we that take the men! Oh it's terrible to hear us

That is sung across the sea

And it's lively when we sing, As across the heaving billows To the foeman's deck we spring We are tenors of the chorus, But on starboard or on lee, We are heard above the thunder That is sung across the sea.

We are flame and fire and terror.

We are twenty to their one; We are up again and at them Ere they charge the heavy gun; And our lips are red with battle, And our throats are hourse with smoke, When we land upon their quarter And they feel our lightning stroke Oh, it's rapid, rapid, rapid, Jolly rapid-fires are we, Singing round the ranging turret

And across the surging sea. We are brothers to the heavies: And we strike where they have miss And there's doom upon the quarter Where our twenty bolts have hissed. Swing the pounders into action, We shall beat the batteries yet! From the furnace to the funnel,

Where the naked seamen sweat, We are heard amid the chorus. And they know our surging shout, As we sing across the waters From our triple-steel redoubt. Oh, it's rip and roar and rumble When the thirteens sink the foe, And it's death upon the billows When the solid pounders go: But it's swift the turrets swing us And with steady, ready ken We search the decks and sweep them With their living walls of men

Discovered by a Woman. Another great discovery has been made, and that to by a lady in this country. "Dis-ease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood it severest tests, but vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery, by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose, that she slept all night; and with two bottles, has been absolutely cured. Her name 's Mrs. Luther Lutz" Thus writes W. C. Hamnick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottles free at Will E. Collins' and J. S. Haggart's deep stores. FOR PROSECUTING ATTORNEY.

Walter McBride, of this city, will Compete for the Nomination on the Republican Ticket.

Yielding to the earnest solicitation of many friends throughout the county, Attorney Walter McBride, of this city, has entered the race for the nomination as a J. H. Clark left Wednesday morning for | candidate for the office of prosecuting attorney. There appears to be other candidates in the contest but all are friends and the campaign will be conducted in the most friendly manner.

Attorney Walter McBride is a native of Shiawassee county, having been born in Caledonia township nearly thirty years ago, receiving his education in the Corunna schools. He is a son of the late Albert Mc-Bride, who was an able lawyer and faithtor's first visit there since locating here five fully served the people as its prosecutor for years ago -- Geo. Bullock was called to two terms. Walter studied law in his father's office and on reaching his majority was admitted to the bar. He at once began the practicing of his profession in this city, where he has remained and been rewarded with a good and lucrative business as well as the respect of the court and members of

> If the delegates to the convention should give him the pomination there should be no question of his election as he is well known and popular, and would enter upon the duties of the office with that earnestness and zeal which make the office an honor to the county and credit to the officer.-Coruppa Journal.

> > FACTS FOR FARMERS.

The Care of Wheat to Get the Most Money Out of It.

To the Farmers:-With the experience I have had in threshing wheat and in milling the same, I honestly believe I can say a few words that will prove a benefit to you as well as to myself. The J. H. DeHart and wife visited at Flint subject to which I wish to call your at-which requires from six to eight weeks. Remember this fact. Wheat that thoroughly sweats out in the straw will keep for years without any attention, and besides is much more valuable for milling purposes.

Also remember that wheat threshed in the sweat or damp can never be improved but usually gets worse and becomes musty. There is more money lost every year to the farmers in the threshing of their wheat out of condition than would be sufficient to twice pay their threshing bill. Wheat well stacked or put in the barn will always come out right if left until it sweats out.
